The new project of the “Consorzio Santa Trinità” TRINIT [àrt] opens in Prato city (Tuscany) . To host this project will be the historic headquarters of the Consorzio, renovated and dedicated exclusively to art and cultural events. Located in the historic center of the city, in one of the liveliest neighborhoods of recent years, it aims to become an exclusive catalyst for national and international contemporary art through a careful selection of artists already accredited by official critics and young emerging, meetings and Round tables, will offer the public, collectors and professionals of the sector art exhibitions and cultural events of the highest quality.

The exhibitions will be organized in several shifts and on a seasonal basis. Consorzio Santa Trinità will not only be a space for the promotion of art but will also become the place to assign the TRINIT [àrt] prize. A prize that provides for the best artist a complete and free management for the organization of a personal exhibition at the headquarters of the Consorzio. In the seasonal exhibition cycles the 4 finalist works that will be exhibited in an exclusive public "Art Event" scheduled for December 2020 will be identified, an event in which the prize will also be awarded to the winner. The organizers reserve the right to assign other prizes and awards.
